A view of history.

This 1942 naval facility has been extensively renovated to combine the prestige of our past with the amenities of today.

The Annapolis Basin Conference Centre

The Annapolis Basin Conference Centre was once Nova Scotia's premier military training facility. In keeping with our military history, we are proud to maintain the traditions of excellence in service, commitment and integrity.

We take pride in our culture too – the culture of service and hospitality. For over a decade, we have helped organizations host conferences, training programs, meetings and events that don't just meet their goals – they exceed them.

We offer:

- Modern facilities
- Superior amenities
- Spectacular sunsets
- Exceptional dining
- Cultural insight
- Voice-over Internet phone technology
- Heartfelt hospitality

Why choose the Annapolis Basin Conference Centre?

It's all right here! The Annapolis Basin Conference Centre is known as one of the most comprehensive event venues in Maritime Canada. Our extensive meeting rooms, accommodations, full theatre, recreation facilities and spectacular sunsets will ensure your next conference is unforgettable.

Our newly upgraded facilities, culturally diverse cuisine and spectacular ocean scenery set the stage for a fresh approach to learning – and leisure.

We deliver a remarkable experience for small and large groups.

Where you learn can have a great impact on what you learn.

Our staff and fully equipped meeting facilities cover the little details – so your group can focus on the big picture.

We have extensive experience hosting group meetings, conferences and events from just a few to 1,000 guests.

Planning an Event?

A corporate retreat? An international conference? An educational seminar? We can handle it. We will work closely with you to see your vision through.
